Guests Can Save 10% on Accommodations at Olde Harbour Inn and East Bay Inn, Help Local Pets in Need

SAVANNAH, Ga. – Throughout November and December, hotel guests can save 10% on a Savannah getaway, plus help pets at the Humane Society for Greater Savannah.

Olde Harbour Inn and East Bay Inn, two pet-friendly historic hotels located along Savannah's scenic riverfront, will collect quality pet food and much-needed pet supplies for the local Humane Society in exchange for a 10% discount off room rates. This special offer applies to stays from November 1 through December 30, 2010.

"Pet lovers visiting Savannah won't want to miss this opportunity to save on a great Savannah vacation and help homeless pets at the same time," said Cindy Roberts, corporate director of sales and marketing for the Olde Harbour Inn and East Bay Inn. "You don't have to be traveling with your pet in order to enjoy the discount. Just make sure you're traveling with your donation items."

In order to qualify for the 10% discount, donated items must be on the following Humane Society "wish list" and have an estimated retail value of at least $15:

FOR DOGS

- New leashes or collars
- New durable/washable toys like Kongs and Nylabones (no tennis balls, please)
- Metal food and water bowls
- Purina Dry adult food (minimum 10 lb. bag)
- Purina One Puppy Chow (minimum 10 lb. bag)

(more)

FOR CATS

- Cat litter/non-clumping
- Purina Dry Kitten and Dry Adult Cat Food (minimum 10 lb bag)
- Toys
- Small metal food and water bowls

Skyler's Restaurant, located inside East Bay Inn, will also offer special discounts on lunch or dinner in exchange for pet donations. This offer is not valid with groups or parties, and some restrictions apply.

Pets are welcome at both the East Bay Inn and the Olde Harbour Inn throughout the year. Advance telephone reservations are required for all pets.

Book reservations online at www.BedAndBreakfastsOfSavannah.com, or call the East Bay Inn at 1-800-500-1225 and the Olde Harbour Inn at 1-800-553-6533. A 10% discount will be applied at check-in when guests make a donation to help area pets.

ABOUT THE EAST BAY INN:

Located in the heart of the National Landmark Historic District at 225 E. Bay Street, the East Bay Inn offers 28 romantic guest rooms, just steps away from the Savannah River and all of Savannah's historic attractions. Great shopping, dining and touring opportunities are within walking distance. Built in 1852, the East Bay Inn was originally home to cotton merchants and a cotton warehouse. The building's high ceilings, iron columns and heart of pine wood floors remind visitors of the inn's earlier days. For more information about the East Bay Inn, please call 1-800-500-1225 or visit www.eastbayinn.com online.

ABOUT THE OLDE HARBOUR INN:

Nestled along Savannah's historic riverfront, the Olde Harbour Inn is a pet-friendly and family-friendly hotel offering world-class service and all the comforts of home, including an ice-cream treat at turndown. This historic property, located at 508 E. Factors Walk, was once home to a local oil company and a blue jeans factory. Meticulously renovated, the Olde Harbour Inn offers the very best of Savannah, with spacious suites and incomparable views of the Savannah River. For more information about the Olde Harbour Inn, please call 1-800-553-6533 or visit www.Oldeharbourinn.com online.
