The holiday season is fast approaching and with it the annual struggle to pick the right present for each person on your gift list.. Here's an interesting option for a surprise for your travel minded family and friends in the metro Atlanta area.

Just a five hour drive to the east is Savannah, Georgia's oldest city and a destination noted for its history, restaurants and attractions. .But the low country surrounding the seaport offers myriad outdoor adventures as well, ranging from hiking and paddling to saltwater fishing and biking.

A long weekend of Savannah's colonial charm would make a great present.

Now Bed and Breakfasts of Savannah is offering gift certificates that are ideal for travelers. Best of all, these are redeemable at six different B&Bs or boutique hotels in Savannah.

The certificates are valid at The Kehoe House, The Marshall House, the Eliza Thompson House, The Gastonian, Olde Harbor Inn or East Bay Inn.

"Our gift certificates make an ideal stocking stuffer this holiday season," said Cindy Roberts, corporate director of sales and marketing for Bed and
